Nicholas Hathaway and son John Hathaway (1629-1705) - Immigrants

1629-1705: English, MA

Nicholas Hathaway was born in about 1595 in England and was raised there. He may have been from the Kingscote, Gloucester area of England. He married in England and his children were born there. Son John Hathaway was born in England in about 1629. Nicholas Hathaway may also have been the father of Joseph Hathaway who was on the Taunton, MA Freeman list in 1657 and of Jacob Hathaway who was a soldier in King Philip's War.

Nicholas Hathaway immigrated to America in 1638 or 1639 with son John Hathaway (1629-1705) who was 10 years old at the time. They settled, at least briefly, at Dorchester (Boston), MA. Son John Hathaway (1629-1705) testified concerning their immigration in court as an adult. Nicholas Hathaway, while in Dorchester, purchased 36 acres of land at Mount Woolstone, Monaticott (Braintree), MA on 24 February 1639, but he never settled there. Nicholas Hathaway also purchased land at Cohannet (soon Taunton), MA where he had joined a group of "first settlers" even before the land was available for purchase. Nicholas Hathaway became a settler and a large landowner at Taunton, MA. Nicholas Hathaway was NOT on the 1643 Taunton, MA military list of all able bodied men 16-60 and there is no further mention of him. He was apparently either too old or infirm in 1643 for service and died within a short time of that document or he returned to England (as some believe). No record of his death or burial has been found in New England or in England. In 1669 son John Hathaway (1629-1705) claimed title to Nicholas Hathaway's New England property.

Son John Hathaway (1629-1705) married Martha (NOT Shepard) in 1649 and they had 8 children at Taunton, MA. The names of 6 of their children are known and 2 are believed to have died very young. John and Martha Hathaway cosigned deeds in 1678 and in 1683. John Hathaway (1629-1705) signed the Oath of Fidelity to England in 1657. In 1658 John Hathaway and 2 others purchased 400 acres "meadow and upland" in Taunton (in the part that is now Berkeley) on the east bank of the Taunton River from Reverend Nicholas Street who relocated to New Haven, CT. John Hathaway's house was in the section known as "The Farms" and was toward the north and on the river. John Hathaway was listed as having 7 people in his family and presumably received land commiserate with that number in the 1659 Taunton land division. John Hathaway was chosen in the 1660s to help with purchasing tracts of land from the Indians for Taunton (these purchases became digition) and subsequently surveying and dividing that land. A 1669 re-"distribution of land" led John Hathaway to claim "the rights that were his father's". John Hathaway was on the 1670 Freeman list and he often served on juries and in the administration of estates. In 1671 John Hathaway purchased Freetown, MA Lot #18 for L52 and this lot later went to son John Hathaway (1650-1730) who became "one of the leading citizens of that locality". John Hathaway (1629-1705) and his 3 oldest sons (John, Abraham, Isaac) served in King Philip's War (1675-1676). In 1676 John Hathaway (1629-1705) was chosen Constable for Taunton, MA, he was chosen Deputy to the Plymouth General Court for 1681-1684, and he was chosen Selectman for Taunton for 1682-1685. In 1687 John Hathaway (1629-1705) showed his generosity by giving 10 acres for the support of the minister and he also donated land for the Fox Cemetery (where he was later buried). In 1690 John Hathaway (1629-1705) was chosen Constable and participated in reorganizing the militia in which he was an ensign. In 1691 John Hathaway (1629-1705) was chosen Deputy to the last Plymouth General Court before Taunton was absorbed by Massachusetts. In 1692 John Hathaway (1629-1705) married second wife Ruth and they cosigned deeds in 1693-1703 (Bristol County Deeds, v.II, pages 402, 433, 492) conveying John Hathaway's (1629-1705) Bristol County property to his sons. In 1695 John Hathaway (1629) and others set up a "bloomery" (forge) at Stony Brook called Chertley Iron Works (later Leonard Iron Works of Norton). In 1696 and 1697 John Hathaway (1629-1705) was chosen Deputy to the Massachusetts General Court in Boston. Both John and Ruth Hathaway died in 1705 and were buried at Fox Cemetery.

Grandson John Hathaway (1650-1730), son of John Hathaway (1629-1705), married Hannah Burt (1652-1726) at Taunton, MA in about 1668 and they raised 11 children (birth order unknown, best guessmate in FGS) at Freetown, MA at the property John Hathaway (1629-1705) had purchased for them. John Hathaway (1650-1730) was a Freeman 06 June 1682, a licensed innkeeper by 05 June 1684, and a selectman at Freetown, MA for 12 years. John Hathaway (1650-1730) was a ship builder and shipyard owner/operator (inherited?) of the Chertley Iron Works in Dighton, MA by the late 1690s. Wife Hannah Burt Hathaway died at Freetown, MA in 1726 and it is believed that John Hathaway (1650-1730) married second to Christian shortly thereafter. John Hathaway's (1650-1730) will was dated 23 May 1724 and it was probated 11 June 1730. The Chertley Iron Works was split between sons Jacob Hathaway (1675-1759) and Isaac Hathaway (1678-1758).

Great Grandson Jacob Hathaway (1675-1759), son of John Hathaway (1650-1730), was born in a garrison house his parents had taken refuge in during King Philip's War. He married Philippa Chase (1679-1754) at Taunton, MA in 1697 and they had 13 children at the Freetown, MA land they inherited from John Hathaway (1650-1730). Jacob Hathaway (1675-1759) was Selectman at Freetown, MA 1720-1734 (excluding 1730) and Assessor there 1725-1736. Jacob Hathaway (1675-1759) was in the militia as a youth, but later became a Quaker like his wife's Chase and Sherman kin. He was jailed in 1719 for refusing to serve in the militia. Jacob Hathaway's (1675-1759) will was dated 05 October 1754 and it was proved 06 February 1759. This will left the children, among many other bequests, 3 "negro boys" Hector and Benoni and Perow and 4 "negro girls" Hagar and Dina and Jenne and Seallier.

Great Great Grandson Jacob Hathaway (1697-1774), son of Jacob Hathaway (1675-1759), married in Suffield, MA (became Suffield, CT in 1749) in 1722 to Deborah Kent (1693-1773) who was the widow of Shadrack Hathaway [married 1717, died 1721, son of Abraham Hathaway who was brother to John Hathaway (1650-1730) who was second husband Jacob Hathaway's (1697-1774) grandfather] and had 2 children/sons. Jacob Hathaway (1697-1774) and wife Deborah Kent had 5 children at Suffield, MA.

Great Great Great Granddaughter Deborah Hathaway (1722-1753), daughter of Jacob Hathaway (1697-1774), married Phineas Sheldon (1717-1807) at West Suffield, MA in 1743 and they raised 5 children at West Suffield which became CT in 1749.

Nicholas Hathaway Bio

Nicholas Hathaway

This excerpt comes from the Hathaway Family Association website. It was written by Leanne Wiese.

Early records of Nicholas in England spell Hathway without the "a" between Hath and way. He was the progenitor of the largest branch of the Hathaways (Hathways, Hatheways, etc.) in America, and was the probable son of Thomas and Margaret Hathway of Kingscote, Gloucestershire, England. He was probably born about 1595, at perhaps what is known today as Binley Farm in Kingscote, England. His death record has never been found either in New England or Old England, where some descendants believe he returned.

There is proof that he arrived in New England between 24 February 1638-1639, and lived in Braintree (Suffolk Deeds 1/28: 14.5). In 1642, adjoining lands were described as "between the lands of Hattaways and Daniel Lovell". He was not on the list of men of Plymouth County able to bear arms in 1643. He may have had several children, including Jacob and Joseph, but certainly had son John, probably b. 1629 in England, and probably d. 1705, in Taunton MA.

From Ancestry.com One World Tree - "Branch of the Thompson Tree - John Thompson"

Nicholas does not have a proven place or date of death. Some sources believe he may have returned to England before his death. He is first mentioned in records of Boston as having purchased a piece of land at Mount Wolleystone in 1639. He is also listed as one of the first settlers of Tauton and is mentioned many times in the land and court records there. His parentage to John Hathaway is proven by the mention in The Propriety Records, vol. 5, pg. 1, which reads that John held a purchase right that originally belonged "to his father Nicholas."

The Will of Margaret Hathaway

Added by user: sharonzonker

From The Pipes Family Genealogy <http://www.pipesfamily.com/nick.htm> Robert J. Pipes The Pipes Family Home Page & www.pipesfamily.com 1996-2009

The will was of one Margaret Hathaway of Kingscote, dated 2 November 1630. It reads thus: (verbatim)

"In ye name of God Amen. I Margaret Hathaway beinge very weake & sicke in bodye but of pfect memory thanks be to God doe here make my last will & testament as it followeth. First I commend my soule into ye hands of my merciful lorde & heavenly father assuredly trustinge to bee saved by ye only maritte of my blessed redeemer the lorde Jesus & my body to ye earth from whence it came disposing of worldly goods & substance in this manner."

"I give unto my sonne Matthew Hathway my cart & my plough harnesses, my cesterne & my maltmill, also a cheese wringe an axe an Iron Barre my beste ploughe stringe & my dray bridle."

"I give to Daniell Hathway sonne of ye said Matthew one lambe"

"It to my sonne Thomas Hathway of Chippen Sodbury one sheepe wch hee hath already in his keeping & a tennon sawe."

"It I bequeath unto Margrett Hathway wife of ye sayde Thomas my best gowne and hatte."

"It I give to Thomas sonne of ye sayde Thomas Hathway one lambe."

"It to William Corbett of ye prsh of Yeate a plough stringe."

"It to Mary Corbett wife of ye sayde William my best petticoate & a little coffer standinge under the window in the ulti chamber."

"It to John Corbett sonne of ye sayde William a lambe if he live to full age."

"It I give to Agnis Sanniger widow of Riddissett in ye prsh of Barkley my second gowne"

"It to my sonne Nicholas Hathway of London five shillings"

"It to my son Abraham Hathway of London a piece of Medyle of five yardes or five yardes or thereabouts & twenty shillings in money"

"It I give unto my sonne Anthony Hathway twenty Shillings"

She uses the remaining paragraph to close the will by appointing her daughter Sarah and son Matthew as executors and lists debts owed to her son Nicholas (five pounds) and a Francis Albome of Iron Acton (five shillings).

The will was proved at Gloucester on January 8, 1630

Short bio of Stephen Harding b. 1723 d.1789

Capt. Stephen Harding
1723 - 1789

Taken from "Richard Harding, Early Immigrant to Weymouth, Massachusetts" by Eva Murrel Harmison out of the Detroit Society for Genealogical Research Magazine, Winter of 1957, Page 87.

With his first wife, Amy Gardner, Stephen Harding, b.1723 d. 1789, settled at Colchester, Connecticut. Their children all born at Colchester were: Amy, Lydia, Jamina, Stephen Jr. (a private in the American Revolution with the Pennsylvania troops under Captain Robert Durkee), Thomas, Benjamin, Stukely, Isreal, Esther, Micajah, Elisha, John and William. In 1774, Stephen Harding with several other Harding families migrated westward and settled in the Wyoming Valley of Pennsylvania, now Exeter, Luzerne Co. At the time of the Wyoming Massacre, 3 July 1778, Captain Stephen Harding was in command of Fort Jenkins. Two of his sons, Benjamin and Stukely were massacred by Indians. His wife, Amy (Gardner) Harding, aided in burying the dead. Stephen and Amy Harding were buried in the Jenkins-Harding Cemetery in west Pittston, Pennsylvania.

Arrest of Stephen Harding, Jr.

1769, Pennsylvania

FROM THE HISTORY OF WILKES-BARRE, PENNSYLVANIA, VOL. 1, pp.272 ff

From original document of Indian deed listing grantees of Susquahanna Company, includes; Stephen Hardin (sic) and Abraham Hardin (sic) [his brother] 11 July, 1754.

15 March 1769, in an effort to drive the New Englanders (members of the Susquahanna Company) from the Wyoming Valley, the forty members of the company were arrested and taken to Easton where they were required to give bail of 100 pds. (English currency). Stephen Harding was one of the forty.

Some of the forty escaped enroute but Stephen Harding was one of the remaining 20 jailed for default of bail. page 514;

At the trial, in September, the jury were given wine before they made their verdict. They found the prisoners guilty and fined each 10 pounds (English) each and excessive costs, including the cost of the wine! September 25, 1769, Stephen Harding was one of the twelve who escaped from the gaol (jail) at Easton on the night of the 24th.

An ad in the Pennsylvania Gazette at Philadelphia offered a 60 pound reward for their capture.

HISTORY OF DE KALB COUNTY, INDIANA (PAGE 509)

Anthony Zonker, one of the successful and well known pioneers of De Kalb County, was born in Lancaster, PA, Sept. 23, 1818, a son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Rode) Zonker, natives of Switzerland, who came to the United States after their marriage and settled in Pennsylvania. In 1825 they moved to Stark County, Ohio, where our subject grew to manhood. The father died in Seneca County, Ohio, aged sixty-five years, and the mother died Avilla, Indiana, aged eighty-two years. In 1845 Mr. Zonker came to De Kalb County, Indiana, and bought 130 acres of unimproved land, which he commenced to clear and improve. In 1855 he sold his land and bought a saw- mill on the outlet of Indian Lake, which he ran ten years. He was successful, and in the mean time bought a large tract of land, and subsequently quit his mill and since has given his attention to agricultural pursuits. He now owns 500 acres of choice land, the greater part under cultivation. Mr. Zonker was married July 16, 1846 to Elizabeth Hosler, a native of Stark County, Ohio, daughter of Michael Hosler. They had a family of nine children, six of whom are living – Mary J., Margaret Ann, Wane A., John Edward, William A., and Eliza Ellen. Samuel, Eli and Emma are deceased. Mr. Zonker is one of the most practical and thorough farmers of the township, and has always taken an active interest in the growth and development of the county. In politics he is a Democrat.

UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

WAYNE KOKICKI, OF CORUNSA, INDIANA.

FEED-TROUGH.

SPECIFICATION forming part of Letters Patent No. 829,413, dated July 24, 1906.

Appl. filed March 1, 1897. Serial No. 797,287. (Sealed)

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, WAYNE KOKICKI, a citizen of the United States, residing at Corunsa, in the county of De Kalb and State of Indiana, have invented a new and useful Feed-Trough, of which the following is a specification.

The invention relates to improvements in feed-troughs.

The object of the present invention is to improve the construction of feed-troughs and to provide a simple, inexpensive, and efficient one designed for supporting food to sheep and other animals and capable of being pivoted and maintained in an inverted position to facilitate cleaning.

The invention resides in the construction and novel combination and arrangement of parts hereinafter fully described, illustrated in the accompanying drawings, and pointed out in the claims hereto appended.

In the drawings, Figure 1 is a perspective view of a feed-trough constructed in accordance with this invention, the feed-trough being in an upright position. Fig. 2 is a right position to prevent it from being accidentally overturned by stock, a locking device 2 is provided, which locking device is also capable of maintaining the trough in an inverted position. The locking device comprises a hinged strap 10 and a swinging hook 11. The strap is hinged at the upper end to one end of the frame by a staple 12 or other suitable fastening device, and its lower end is provided with a slot 13, adapted for the reception of a staple or eye 14 and 15, located at opposite sides of the trough and arranged, respectively, to engage the strap when the trough is in an upright and in an inverted position. The strap 14 is arranged at the top upper edge of the trough, and the staple 15, which is arranged at the opposite side of the trough, is located between the top and bottom of the trough, as clearly shown in Figs. 2 and 3. This strap projecting through the top is engaged by the swinging hook, which is pivoted or hinged to the outer face of the top, with its engaging portion or bill extending transversely of the slot, and it is adapted to be readily engaged with and disengaged from

New Trial

Thos. R. Marshall and D. M. Link, attorneys for Fred Kuckuck, convicted of manslaughter in the DeKalb circuit court, have made a motion for a new trial and the same will be argued before Judge Brutton Monday.

Mr. Marshall says that the attorneys for Kuckuck did not concede that the state had made a case against their client and that the reason they did not argue the case was to avail themselves of certain rights in asking for a new trial that otherwise would be denied them. Mr. Marshall avers that he is no "quitter" and asserts that if the young man is able financially to take the case to the supreme court he'll be free within six months. Columbia City Post.

Obituary

Anthony Zonker, son of Joseph Zonker and Mary (Roth) Zonker, was born near Lancaster, Penn., September 23rd, 1818. Two years later his parents moved to Venango county, Penn. This country was a great wilderness at that time; great forests and many large animals abounded. Five years later his parents moved to Stark county, Ohio. This country also was new and wild. When he was sixteen years of age he moved with his parents to Seneca county, Ohio. He remained here until he grew to manhood, and at the age of six and twenty he came to DeKalb county, Fairfield township, Indiana. At that time this country was a very wild country—not much clearing done; the forests having many wild animals. In 1846, the 16th of July he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Hosler. To this union were born nine children—four daughters, Mary Jane Kundred, Margaret Ann Weingart, Eliza Ellen Hartman and Emma Zonker. The sons were Wayne Zonker, Samuel Zonker, Eli Zonker, John Edward Zonker and William A. Zonker. Of these Samuel, Emma and Eli preceded him to the better world. In 1845 he came to DeKalb county, and bought 130 acres of land which he commenced to improve. In 1855 he sold this land and bought a land sawmill on the outlet of Indian lake, which he run ten years. He was very successful, and in the meantime bought a large track of land and subsequently quit the milling business, giving his entire time to agricultural pursuits, acquiring 500 acres of land. The foregoing biographical sketch was dictated by him about two years ago. He leaves thirty-six grandchildren and twenty-two great grandchildren. Two of his grandchildren were named in honor of him—one, the young man

Anthony Zonker Dead

Anthony Zonker, aged 87 years died at the residence of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hartman in Fairfield township, DeKalb county, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. He was an early settler of DeKalb county, a man of prominence and highly respected. He was the grand-father of young Zonker who was killed by Kucknek last August.

Mr. Zonker was greatly attached to the young man and his untimely death had a very depressing effect upon the old gentleman and no doubt hastened his demise.

The funeral was held at the residence on Monday, January 1, at 11 o'clock. Burial at Fairfield Center.

Mr. Zonker was born in Lancaster county, Pa., September 23, 1818, and came to DeKalb county in 1845, locating in Fairfield township. He was successful as a farmer and mill owner and amassed a fortune. The funeral will be held at Fairfield Center, Monday and the interment will be in the cemetery there. Mr. Zonker was a pioneer of the county, a man of strong convictions, a good neighbor and a warm friend. His death marks the departure of one of the men who did their share in the development of DeKalb county.

DEATH DELAYS TRIAL

Anthony Zunker, Dr. J. J. Zunker,
Marion Zunker.

The Kuckuck trial was postponed Saturday evening, after the trial was adjourned owing to the death of Anthony Zunker, of Fairview, occurring Saturday morning at the house of Levi Harrison. The funeral was set for Monday and many of the witnesses were recalled and present to attend.

There is a feeling connected with his death. It appears that Anthony Zunker, Jr., a nephew of the late Zunker, was quite a terrible man and his death at the hand of Harrison was a shock that the other jurors could not stand. He had thought that Kuckuck should be prosecuted and as soon as the trial of Henry Coleman, of St. Paul, and M. Phillips, of the same, is over the State in the prosecution. There is aside a sufficient man for the purpose be soon was stripped with punishment. Gradually he fell over and killed him, always carrying the murder.

Mr. Zunker was a native of the State of New York and resided in Fairview for many years in 1843, coming from Lancaster, Pa.

The Kuckuck trial was first adjourned last week by the adjournment of a witness, then the illness of a juror and finally by the above death.
